about

Jamie's artist and production credits span 20 years, covering every genre from electronic, rock, singer-songwriter, jazz, orchestral, and more. Myerson has built up a body of work that reflects an amazing amount of versatility and depth.

As a remixer, he's been responsible for an array of indie and major label chart-topping singles. As a producer, he's steered projects for respected indie artists AM and Amy Cook. As a recording artist, his albums and singles have won him praise from fans and positive reviews from international publications. Myerson's work has also been featured in film, TV, and commercials.

Currently, Jamie is scoring commercials in the US and UK and producing up and coming artists in his newly expanded studio.
